

I support Satellite Radio and all the services it provides to its customers. They have the right to provide traffic and weather to its customers, I even though I use satellite radio I will still listen to local channels for a traffic and weather report, but I feel I should have the option to listen to what I choose to. Thank you